First Impressions

Directions: Create a graph similar to diagram A below. You may use chart paper and a marking pen or you may opt to use a pocket chart, if available. For very young children, focusing on one animal at a time and using graphing units is preferable. For older children you might choose to use tally marks and include more than one animal on the same graph. A finished graph for very young children may appear similar to Diagram B.

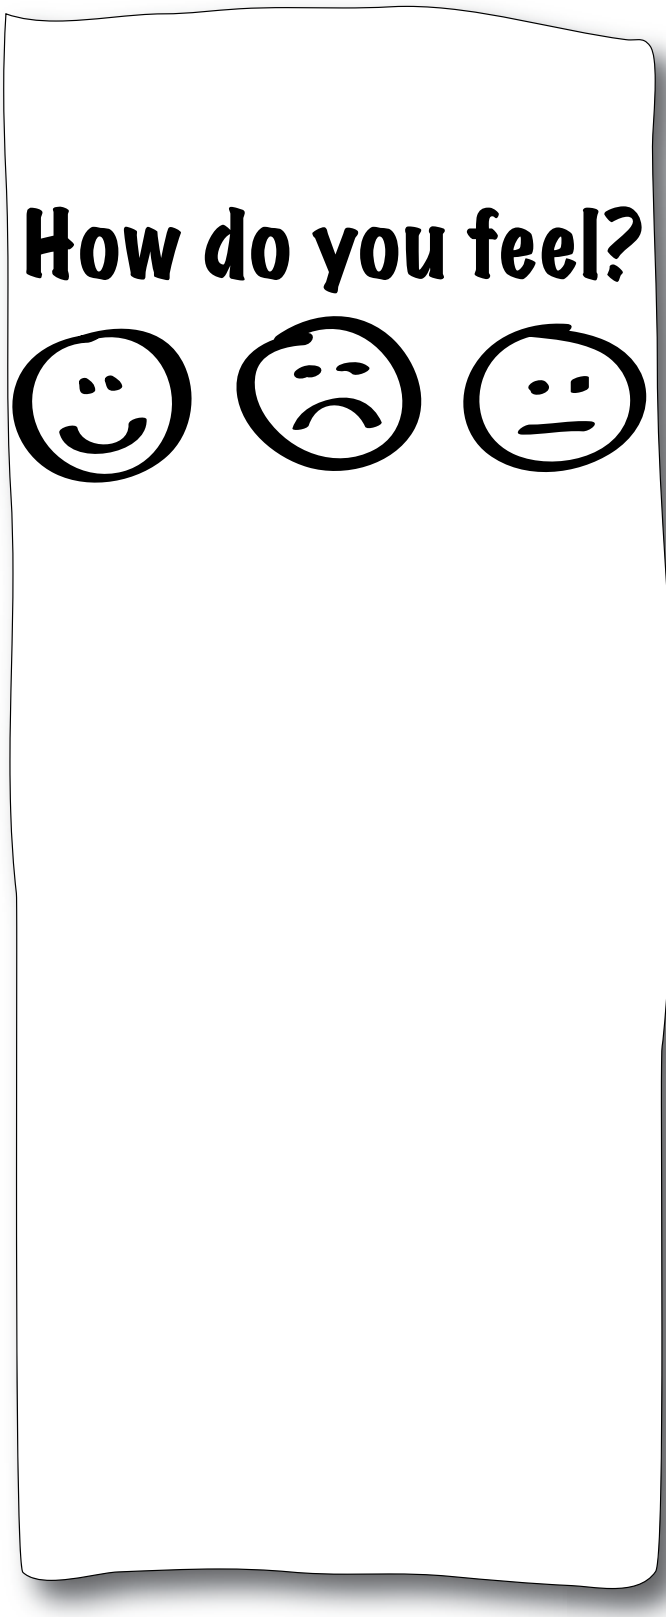

Diagram A

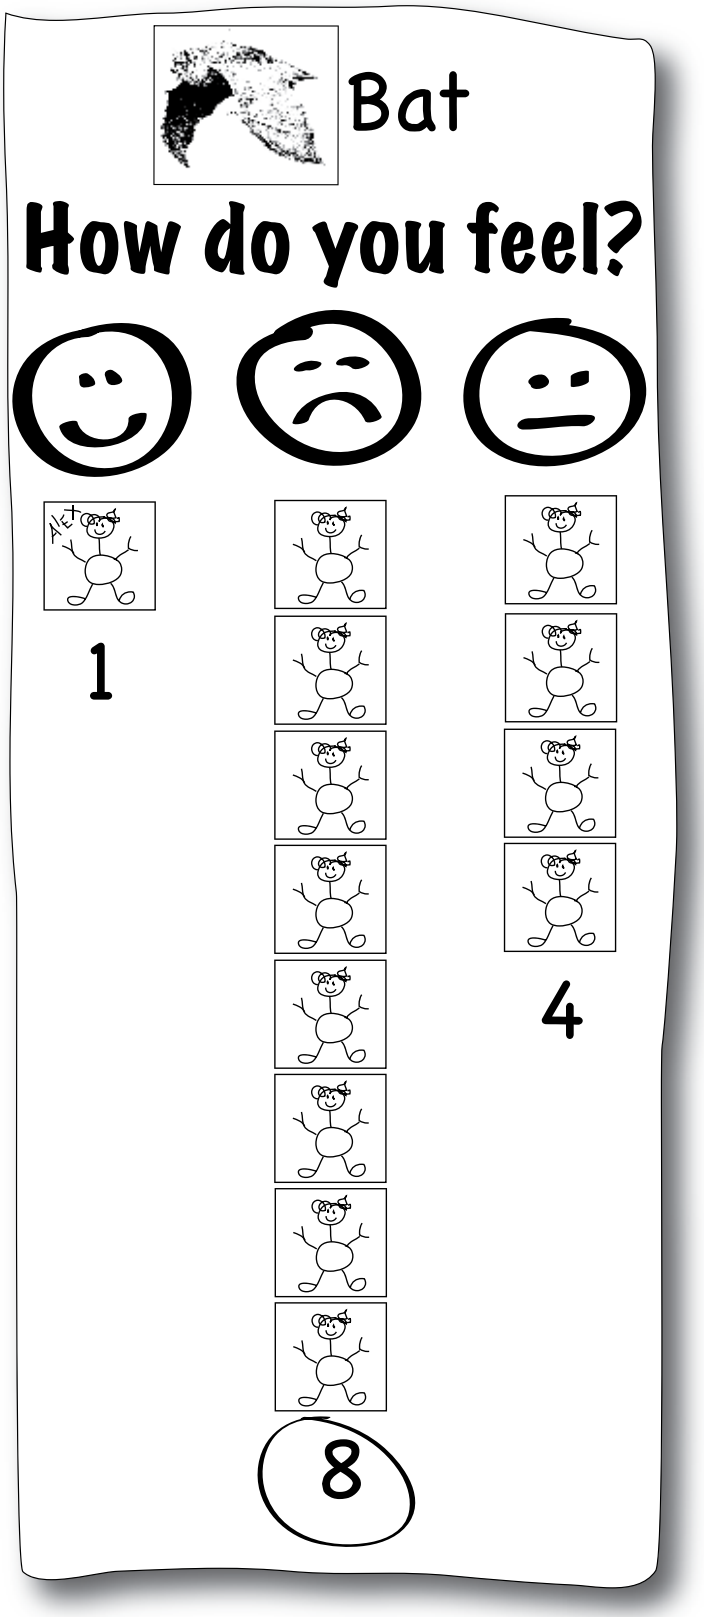

Diagram B

 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education

Animal Cards

American Robin

Leopard Frog

Garter Snake

Gray Squirrel

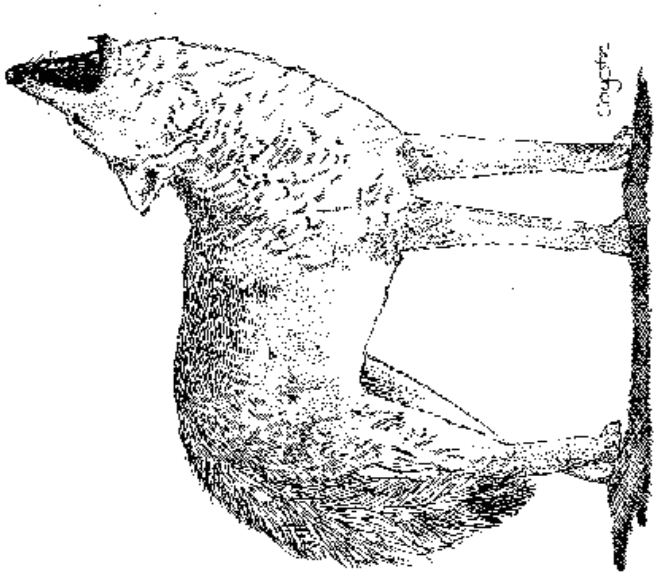
 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education

Animal Cards

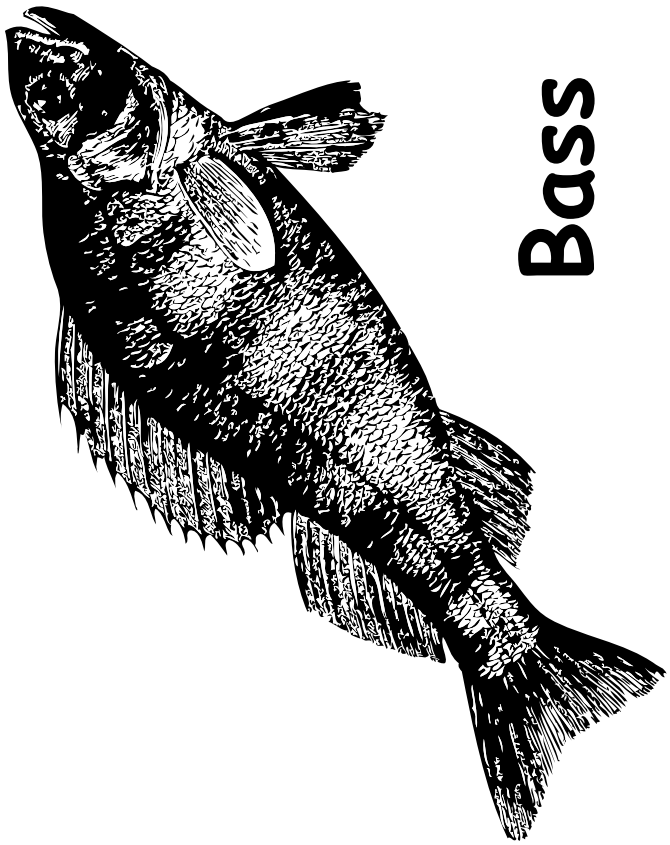
 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education

Animal Cards

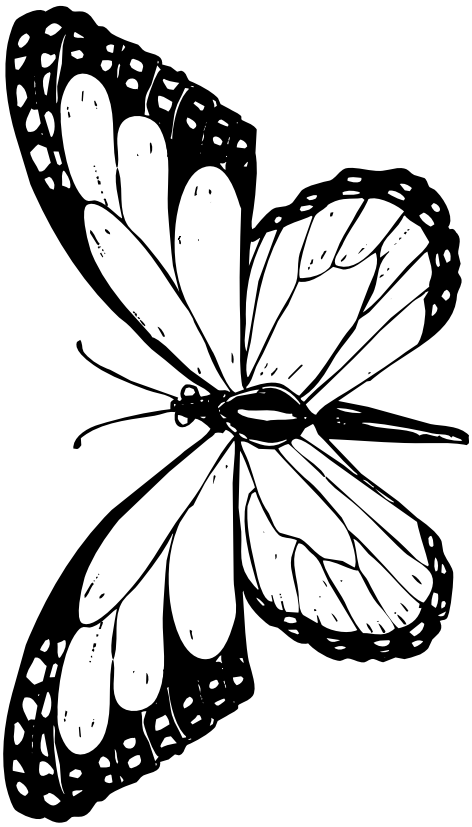
Coyote



Opossum



Bass

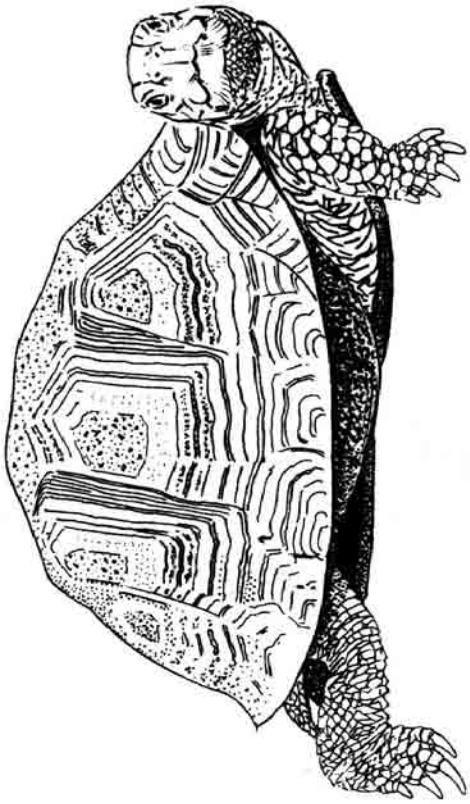


Monarch Butterfly

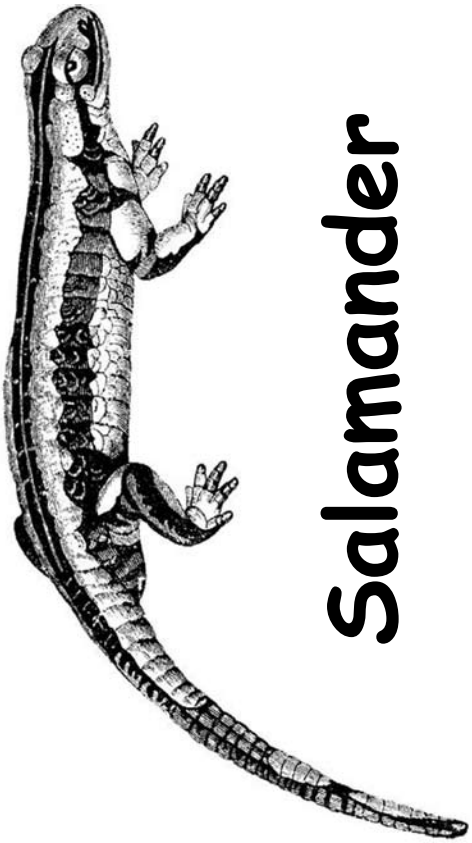
 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education

Animal Cards

Box Turtle



Salamander

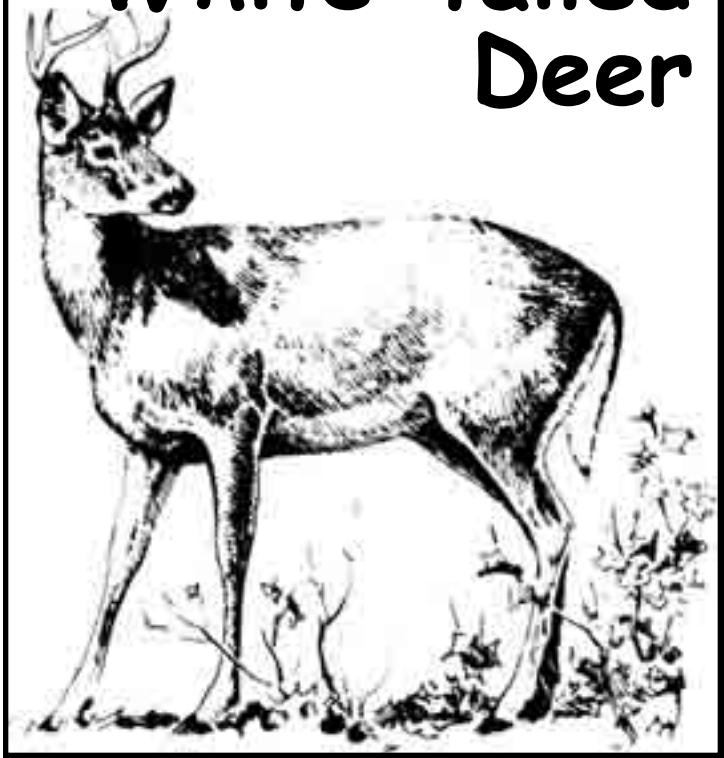


Mosquito

Black Bear

Animal Cards

White-tailed Deer



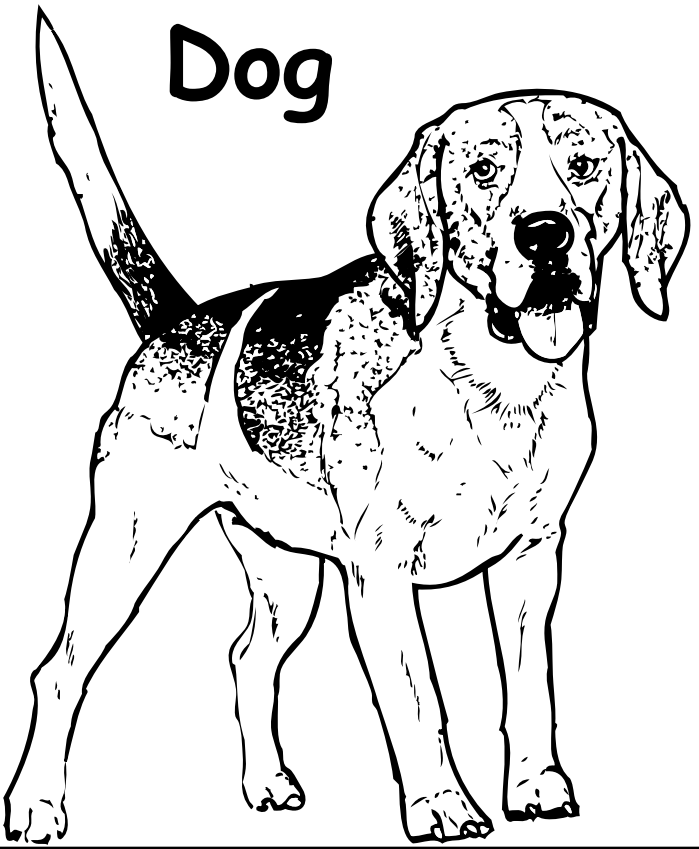
Earthworms

Lizard

Pigeon

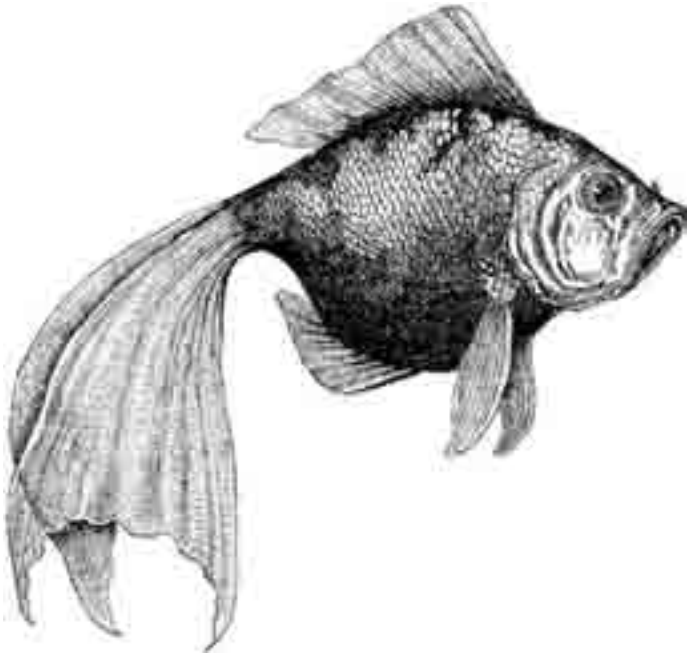
Animal Cards

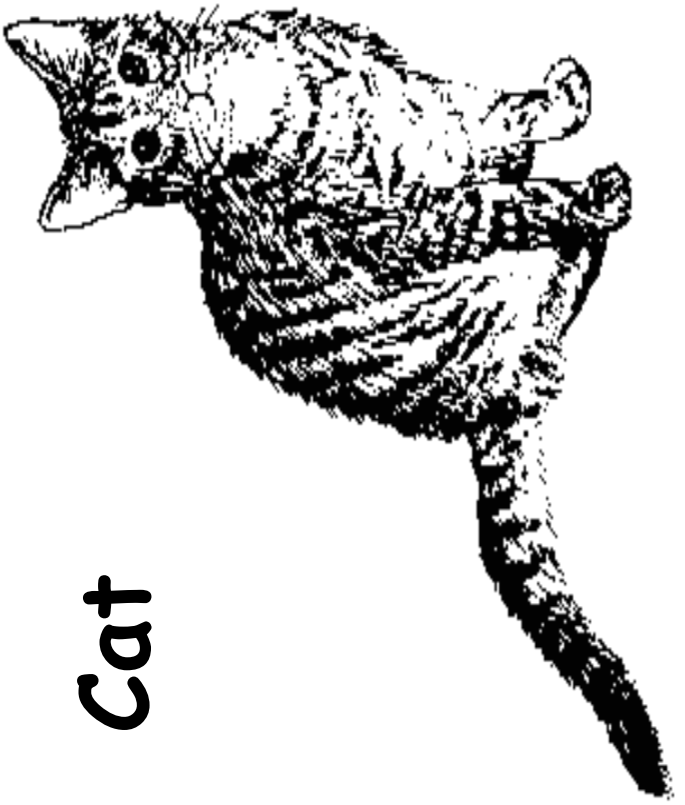
Parakeet



Dog

Goldfish





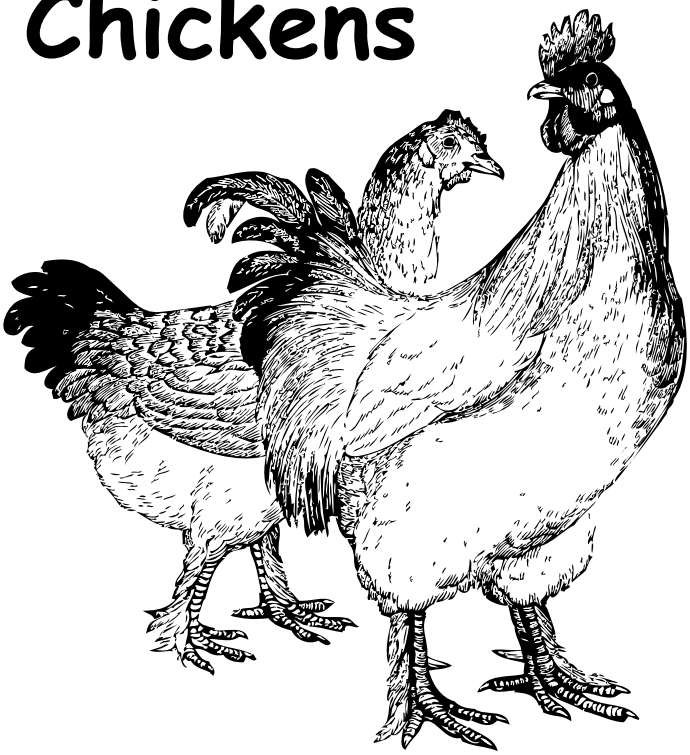
Cat

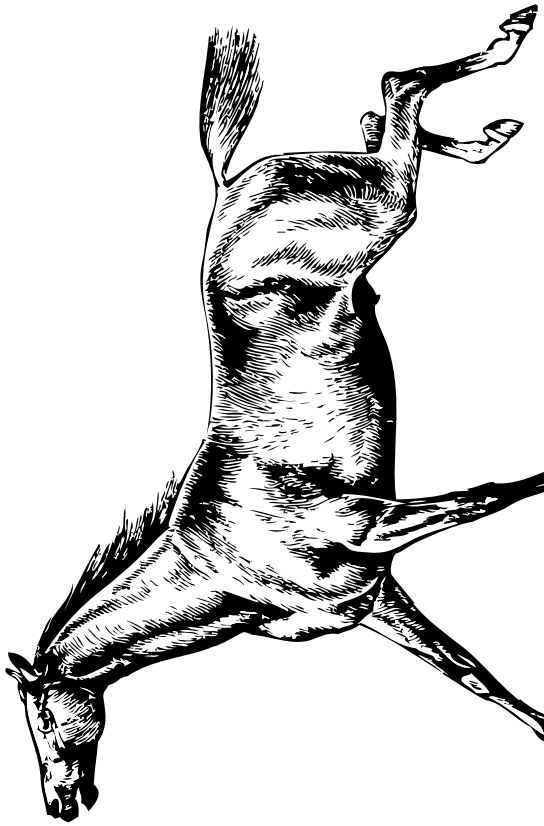
 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education

Animal Cards

Pig

Chickens





Horse

Cow

 © 2009 Council for Environmental Education