

STATE OF FLORIDA
FLORIDA FISH AND WILDLIFE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Order No. EO 18-31

Temporary No Entry Area for Bay Scallop Restoration in St. Joseph Bay

The Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission of the State of Florida, acting under the authority of Article IV, Section 9, of the Florida Constitution, and acting through its Executive Director under Paragraph 22 of the Delegations of Authority, hereby establishes a temporary No Entry Area within St. Joseph Bay to protect bay scallop population restoration efforts effective August 1, 2018, through December 31, 2018. The Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission is conducting a restoration project to rebuild the bay scallop population within St. Joseph Bay by holding adult scallops in cages within the No Entry Area to protect them from predators and to increase spawning success. The boundary of the No Entry Area will be marked on the water with buoys labeled "FWC". All activities within the described No Entry Area are prohibited as follows:

1. All vessels and all persons, either in vessels or swimming, diving, wading, or fishing are hereby prohibited from entering the following No Entry Area within St. Joseph Bay:

Commencing at the northwestern-most corner of the No Entry Area (29°42.175'N, 85°20.10'W); thence in an easterly direction to the northeastern-most corner of the No Entry Area (29°42.175'N, 85°19.95'W); thence in a southerly direction to the southeastern-most corner of the No Entry Area (29°42.075'N, 85°19.95'W); thence in a westerly direction to the southwestern-most corner of the No Entry Area (29°42.075'N, 85°20.10'W); thence in a northerly direction to the northwestern-most corner of the No Entry Area, the point of beginning.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Chapter 68B-18, Florida Administrative Code, no person may harvest any bay scallop from this No Entry Area or possess a bay scallop in this area.
3. No person shall molest, tamper with, remove the contents of, or possess a bay scallop restoration cage within the No Entry Area without prior written authorization from the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.
4. All other rules or orders of the Commission relating to bay scallops shall remain in effect.
5. This order shall take effect at 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 1, 2018, and shall expire at 11:59 p.m. EST on December 31, 2018, unless extended by subsequent order.
