Consent Agenda Item #5

(NEW) 68-1.012 Verification of Residency for the Purpose of Recreational Licenses and Permits

For the purpose of providing proof of residency to obtain a resident recreational license, permit, or authorization, customers must submit one form of documentation as indicated below.

(1) When using the Commission's online licensing system or when ordering by telephone:

(a) A valid Florida driver license; or

(b) An identification card that has both a Florida address and a Florida residency verified by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.

(2) When presenting in-person to a Commission licensing subagent or Tax Collector's office:

(a) The proof of residency provided for in subsection (1), or in the absence thereof:

1. A current Florida voter information card;

2. A sworn statement manifesting and evidencing domicile in Florida in accordance with Section 222.17, F.S.;

3. Proof of a current Florida homestead exemption; or

4. For a child younger than 18 years of age, a student identification card from a Florida school or, if accompanied by his or her parent at the time of purchase, the parent's proof of residency.
