Patrol, Protect, Preserve

January 10, 2019 through January 23, 2020

This report represents some events the FWC handled over the past two weeks; however, it does not include all actions taken by the Division of Law Enforcement.

NORTHWEST REGION

CASES

FRANKLIN COUNTY

Officer Hartzog and Officer L. Mcleod were on water patrol in the Apalachicola Bay when they observed a boat fishing with several subjects on board. They conducted a resource inspection and found the subjects were in possession of three undersized black drum. The fish were returned to the water alive and the owner of the vessel was cited appropriately.

Officers Lipford and Gerber were conducting vessel patrol on Little Brother's Slough when they encountered two vessels with three subjects on board conducting a logging operation. Upon inspection it was determined the subjects did not have a permit for the area where they were located. The appropriate citation was issued.

GADSDEN COUNTY

Officer Brower responded to shots fired on Dogtown Road. Upon arrival he observed a vehicle shining a light in a manner capable of disclosing the presence of wildlife. Officer Brower conducted a traffic stop and observed three loaded firearms readily accessible inside the vehicle. The two subjects occupying the vehicle were cited appropriately and the firearms and spotlight were seized as evidence.

Nine officers from Gadsden, Liberty, Wakulla, Franklin and Bay counties as well as two investigators, one K-9 Officer and two North Central officers executed a search warrant in the culmination of Operation "Lil' Dixie". The four-day operation was developed from information shared by officers from the North Central Region about hunters traveling to the Northwest Region to hunt the Apalachicola and Tate's Hell Wildlife Management Area's (WMA). During the execution of the warrant, officers recovered a cooler containing antlerless deer meat. Statements were taken and a suspect was identified. Charges pending.

JACKSON COUNTY

Officer Humphrey was on land patrol when he stopped to check a hunter who had an antlerless deer in the back of his truck. The hunter claimed he shot the deer very early in the morning and thought it was a buck. The hunter was charged appropriately.

OKALOOSA COUNTY

Officers Hahr and McVaney responded to a call from a woman who heard a gunshot and saw a hawk fall onto the street in front of her home. When they arrived, the woman told the officers that the hawk was injured, but was no longer in the area. She showed them photos of an immature red-shouldered hawk lying on the ground. The officers talked to several neighbors and determined that the shot had come from a residence just across the street. No one was present when they tried to contact the residents, so they returned later and spoke to the homeowners and their adult son. After questioning the son, he admitted to shooting the hawk. The officers spoke to the State Attorney's Office, which resulted in the subject being charged for violating the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

SANTA ROSA COUNTY

K-9 Officer Hutchinson was on patrol in the Blackwater State Forest when he observed a truck stop near a field. While watching the truck, he observed a bright light shine from the open driver side window. The light was being swept across the field in a manner capable of disclosing the presence of deer. The truck slowly drove along the roadway and continued to shine the field. Officer Hutchinson followed the truck and conducted a traffic stop. While questioning the driver he admitted to shining the field to look for deer. Officer Hutchinson also observed a scoped hunting rifle in the passenger seat of the truck. The driver was charged appropriately, and Officer Hutchinson seized the rifle and the light as evidence.

NORTH CENTRAL REGION

CASES

DUVAL COUNTY

Officer LeMaster was on patrol in Palmetto Leaves Regional Park when he came across two people in the park after hours. The male subject had a warrant for assault and for violation of a domestic violence injunction. He was placed under arrest and transported to the Duval County Pre-Trial Detention Center.

Officer Christmas was on patrol when he approached a man who was observed fishing from a kayak near the Apollo Avenue Boat Ramp. The man was asked for his fishing license and the officer learned the man is on the "do not sell list." The individual was previously cited for fishing while his privileges were revoked. He was cited appropriately.

NASSAU COUNTY

Officers Stuhr and Haskins were on patrol when they initiated a traffic stop on the operator of an ATV driving on a paved roadway. The officers learned the operator had an active warrant issued by the Nassau County Sheriff's Office for domestic battery. The operator was placed under arrest and transported to the Nassau County Jail.

GILCHRIST COUNTY

Officer Allen received information that a subject was shooting from a vehicle on a county-maintained road. When he arrived on scene, he photographed the tire tracks and collected several .22 caliber shell casings. Officer Butler arrived to assist and found the suspect traveling on a nearby road. A .22 caliber rifle was in the front seat along with ammunition that matched the empty shell casings found at the scene. The subject admitted to stopping and shooting from his vehicle. Further investigation revealed the subject was a convicted felon. Possession of a firearm by convicted felon and attempting take wildlife from county-maintained road and will be direct filed with the Gilchrist County State Attorney's Office.

LEVY COUNTY

Officer Fox and Lieutenant Griffis responded to a complaint of an overdue vessel in Withlacoochee Bay. The vessel was a commercial oyster vessel and when located the operator was in possession of commercial quantities of oysters. An inspection of the oysters revealed that 52% of them were undersize. Appropriate citations were issued.

ALACHUA COUNTY

Officer Stanley received a call regarding turtles in a neglected state at a residence in Gainesville. Upon arriving, Officer Stanley noticed a yellow-bellied slider that appeared dead in a plastic bin filled with water in the back yard of the residence. Officer Stanley located two additional striped mud turtles in the same container struggling on the surface – there was no dry resting place in the container for the turtles. The turtles were released to an FWC biologist and the owner was cited appropriately.

Officer Starling was on night patrol in Devil's Hammock WMA. He noticed a pickup truck exiting the management area. Upon stopping the truck, the occupants were in possession of multiple firearms and a spotlight. The appropriate citations were issued.

DIXIE COUNTY

Officers Butler and Allen worked a detail focusing on the illegal harvest of oysters. They observed two subjects harvesting oysters in a closed area. While conducting a resource inspection the subjects admitted they knew the area was prohibited for harvest of oysters. Charges will be direct filed with the State's Attorney Office.

HAMILTON COUNTY

Officer Nichols received a call of gun shots coming from Lang Lake Fish Management Area. The officer arrived and observed a pickup truck parked at the ramp and heard gunshots coming from Lang Lake. Two subjects were hunting ducks from kayaks. The area was closed to hunting and the appropriate citations were issued.

CITRUS COUNTY

Officers Ulrich and Browning were on water patrol and observed several groups of hunters in vessels attempting to take ducks. While continuing the watch, the officers observed the ducks being rallied. Citations were issued for the migratory bird violation.

Officer Banks and Reid were on water patrol in St. Martin's River near Salt River. They watched a vessel being operated slowly with bright lights displayed on the bow. The officers observed as the operator of the vessel suddenly increased speed and headed toward a group of houses. As the officers approached the vessel and announced themselves, one of the occupants threw something in the bushes. The officers looked in the bushes and found a red drum that had been gilled. One of the occupants admitted to the violation and the appropriate citation and warnings were issued.

SEARCH AND RESCUE

DUVAL COUNTY

Officers Barry, Haskins, and LeMaster assisted the Duval County Sheriff's Office with a multi-agency search and Nationwide Amber Alert of two children that were missing. Numerous wooded and submerged areas were searched by these officers on foot and by UTV. The children were located after two days in the woods by first responders.

NASSAU COUNTY

Officers Stuhr, Waldo and Culbreth were dispatched to assist the Nassau County Sheriff's Office with a search of two overdue boaters. The subjects allegedly took canoes from a vendor without paying and paddled up the St. Mary's River. The subjects were located and were brought back to the canoe vendor.
