The right to receive information regarding the stages of the criminal or juvenile justice process and the manner in which information about such stages may be obtained. Note: You cannot be notified if we cannot locate you. It is your responsibility to keep the State Attorney's Office informed of any changes in your address or telephone number.

The right to be informed, present, and heard when relevant, at all crucial stages of a criminal or juvenile justice proceeding, to the extent the right does not interfere with the constitutional rights of the accused.

The right, if you are incarcerated, to be informed and submit written statement at all crucial stages of the criminal and juvenile justice proceedings.

The right to a prompt and timely disposition of the case as long as it does not interfere with the constitutional rights of the accused.

The right to be notified of the arrest and release of the offender, including release to community control and/or work release. When an arrest is made in a reported case, the victim, witnesses, relatives of minor victims and witnesses and relatives of homicide victims, where those person have provided current addresses and telephone numbers to the Sheriff/Police/SAO shall be notified.

The right to receive information on the steps available to law enforcement and the State Attorney's Office to protect you from intimidation and/or harassment. It is a third degree felony to knowingly use intimidation or use physical force, or threaten another person, or attempt to do so, or engage in misleading conduct toward another person, or offer money or other gain to another person. If you are being threatened or intimidated, please contact the appropriate agency or any law enforcement officer.

The right of the victim of domestic violence to be informed of the address confidentiality program administered through the Attorney General's Office. You may contact the Attorney General's Office at 1-800-226-6667. The State Attorney's Office may assist with this paperwork is necessary.

The right of each victim or witness who has been scheduled to attend a criminal or juvenile justice proceeding to be notified as soon as possible by the agency or person scheduling his/her appearance of any change in scheduling which will affect the victim's appearance.

The right to receive advance notification of judicial and post judicial proceedings relating to the case, including all proceedings or hearings relating to:

- The arrest of the accused.
- The release of the accused, pending judicial proceedings, any modification of release condition to include release to community control or work release.
- Proceedings in the prosecution or petition or delinquency of the accused, including the filing of the accusatory instrument, the arraignment, disposition of the accusatory instrument, trial or adjudicatory hearing, sentencing or disposition hearing, appellate review, subsequent modification of sentence, collateral attack of judgment, and when a term of imprisonment, detention, or involuntary commitment is imposed, the release of the defendant or juvenile offender from such imprisonment, detention or juvenile offender from such imprisonment, detention or commitment by expiration or sentence or parole and any meeting held to consider such release.

The right to not be excluded from any portion of any hearing, trial or proceeding pertaining to the offense based solely upon the fact that such person is subpoenaed to testify, unless the court determines otherwise.

In addition to the provisions of s. 921.143, F.S., the rights of the victim of a felony involving physical or emotional injury or trauma, or in a case in which the victim is a minor child or in a homicide, the guardian or family of the victim shall be consulted by the State Attorney in order to obtain the views of the victim or family about the disposition of any criminal or juvenile case brought about as a result of such crime, including their views about:

- The release of the accused pending judicial proceedings.
- Plea Agreements
- Participation in pretrial diversion programs.
- Sentencing of the accused.

The right to review certain portions of a pre-sentence investigation report for adult and youthful offenders prior to the sentencing of the accused.

The right to request, in certain circumstances that the offender be required to attend a different school than the victim or siblings of the victim. If the victim of an offense committed by a juvenile is a minor, and the victim or any sibling of the victim attends or is eligible to attend the same school as that of the offender, the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department of Corrections shall notify the victim's parent or legal guardian of the right to attend the sentencing or disposition of the offender and request that the offender be required to attend a different school.

The right of the victim who is not incarcerated to not be required to attend discovery dispositions in any correctional facility.

The statutory obligation of the victim, or next of kin of a homicide victim, that any information gained pursuant to F.S. Chapter 960, regarding any case handled in juvenile court, must not be revealed to any outside party, except as reasonably necessary in pursuit of legal remedies.

The right of a victim or the victim's legal guardian, or the parent or legal guardian of a victim, if the victim is a minor, to request that a person who is charged with any offense enumerated in section 775.0877(1)(a)-n, Florida Statutes, that involves the transmission of body fluids from one person to another, undergo hepatitis and HIV testing.

To request in sex offenses, under certain circumstances, if the victim is under the age of 18 or is a disabled adult or elderly person, that the court order the accused to undergo HIV testing regardless of where the offense involves the transmission of bodily fluids. If requested by the victim, the results of the testing shall be made available to the victim no later than two weeks after the court receives such results.

The right of the victim of a sexual offense to have a forensic medical exam competed by a medical professional at no cost to the victim. The exam is free, regardless of whether or not the victim is pursuing criminal charges. The victim also has the right to keep to exam confidential.

The right of the victim of a sexual offense or, if applicable, the person representing the victim to be informed of the purpose of submitting evidence for forensic testing and the right to request forensic testing.

The right of the victim of a sexual offense to request the presence of a victim advocate during the forensic medical examination. An advocate from a certified rape crisis center shall be permitted to attend any forensic medical examination.

No law enforcement officer, prosecuting attorney or government official shall ask or require a victim of a sexual offense to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth-telling device as a condition of the investigation.

The right to request, for specific crimes, that your home and work telephone numbers, home and work addresses, and personal assets not be disclosed to anyone.

The right of a victim, or the parent or legal guardian of a victim diagnosed with autism or an autism spectrum disorder to request the presence of a professional during all interviews. This includes a psychiatrist, psychologist, mental health counselor, special education instructor, clinical social worker, or related professional with experience treating, teaching, or assisting patients who have been diagnosed with autism or an autism spectrum disorder or related developmental disability or certified in special education with a concentration focused on autism or an autism spectrum disorder. Expenses related to the attendance of the professional at interviews is the responsibility of the requesting parent, legal guardian or individual.

Victims (or their relatives where the victim is deceased) may be eligible for compensation from the State of Florida. Information regarding eligibility may be obtained from the State Attorney's Office, local Witness Coordination Office (where available), law enforcement agency or from the Bureau of Crimes Compensation, Office of the Attorney General (1-800-226-6667).

CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROCESS

The stages of the criminal justice system are as follows:

CRIME COMMITTED – After a crime is reported to law enforcement, an investigation will be conducted. If law enforcement is able to collect enough evidence, they may make an arrest.

ARREST – Suspect(s) taken to jail, fingerprinted and photographed. Some are immediately released or have to post a bond to ensure they will show up in court.

INTAKE – Victim reports a crime to the local State Attorney's Office. If probable cause is found, the State Attorney's Office may choose to file charges and summons the suspect to court.

FIRST APPEARANCE – Occurs within 24 hours of an arrest. Each suspect kept in jail must appear before a judge who establishes whether charges are reasonable. The judge will consider whether a bond should be set and if so, how much. The Judge will also consider conditions of release and appoint a defense attorney if the suspect cannot afford one.

FILING OF FORMAL CHARGES – The State Attorney's Office may file formal charges after reviewing law enforcement arrest reports, and within 21 days in certain circumstances.

ARRAIGNMENT – The accused is formally charged and enters a plea of guilty, not guilty, or no contest.

TRIAL PREPARATION – The prosecutor and defense attorney interview witnesses and exchange evidence in preparation for trial.

TRIAL – The prosecutor presents evidence to either the judge or a jury about the case. The defendant may be found guilty or not guilty. The process ends if the defendant is found not guilty.

PLEA – Defendant pleads guilty or no contest without a trial.

SENTENCING – If the defendant is found guilty; the Judge reviews sentencing guidelines, plea agreements, etc., and determines what type of sentence the defendant should receive.

JUVENILE JUSTICE PROCESS

INTAKE – The process of determining where a child under the age of 18 will be placed until the case is resolved. There are three forms of detention status: home, non-secure or secure.

DIVERSION PROGRAMS – An alternative to trial where the juvenile is placed in a community based program such as juvenile arbitration, juvenile alternative services program (JASP), or a treatment plan (Walker Plan). If a juvenile successfully completes the diversion program, then the charges are generally dismissed.

FORMAL CHARGES – The filing of a petition in court by the State Attorney’s Office. The charge may be filed in either juvenile court or adult court, depending upon the crime and age of the offender.

ARRAIGNMENT – The accused if formally charged and enters a plea of guilty, not guilty, or no contest.

ADJUDICATORY HEARING – The trial of the juvenile, conducted in front of a Judge. The Judge will decide whether the juvenile committed the charged offense(s).

DISPOSITIONAL HEARING (SENTENCING) – When a juvenile is found to have committed a delinquent act, the court will hold a dispositional hearing to determine which sanctions to impose on the juvenile. The sanctions could range from community-based sanctions like probation and community services up to residential commitment.

JUVENILES TRIED AS ADULTS – Juveniles who commit very serious crimes may be tried as adults. Juveniles who are prosecuted as adults may be sentenced to adult or juvenile sanctions.

You may contact your State Attorney or law enforcement agency for more information regarding the stages of the criminal and juvenile justice process.
