

ANSWER KEY

1. Growing Up WILD supports literacy through all the below, except...

- a) Read-aloud fiction and non-fiction books
- b) Rhyming songs and poems
- c) Snacks
- d) Wild wonderful words

2. A special feature or behavior that helps an animal survive in its environment is:

- a) Habitat
- b) Predator
- c) Adaptation
- d) Vertebrate

3. What section from Growing Up WILD can BEST help children develop a respect for living things?

- a) Helping Hands
- b) Mighty Math
- c) Snack
- d) Art Project

4. Growing Up WILD promotes and support developmentally appropriate practice in several ways.

- a) True
- b) False

5. What section of the guide can early childhood educators use to get children outside?

- a) Healthy Me
- b) Take Me Outside
- c) Centers and Extensions
- d) Music and Movement

6. The following are all types of spider webs except:

- a) Tangle web
- b) Orb web
- c) Funnel web
- d) Blanket web

7. Children will act responsibly towards the earth and become better-informed, environmentally aware adults if they have the chance to play outside in nature.

- a) True
- b) False

8. Home connections are fun little projects _____ and children can do together to extend the learning at home.

- a) Best friends
- b) Teachers
- c) Pets
- d) Parents/guardians

9. Growing Up WILD provides Center and Extension ideas, related to each topic, to help children learn through self-discovery.

- a) True
- b) False

10. Engaging songs, poems or movement activities will not help children remember important science content.

- a) True
- b) False

